Awareness Walk: A large gathering of students, faculty, healthcare workers, and community members participated in an awareness walk through the streets of Hojai. The walk was led by representatives from the District Health Society, carrying banners and distributing informational pamphlets about HIV/AIDS prevention and treatment.

Educational Workshops: NAMCE hosted a series of educational workshops, where experts and healthcare professionals delivered presentations on various aspects of HIV/AIDS, including prevention, transmission, treatment, and stigma reduction. These workshops provided attendees with up-to-date information and dispelled common misconceptions about the disease.

Cultural Performances: The event also featured cultural performances by NAMCE students, conveying messages of hope, support, and unity in the fight against HIV/AIDS. These performances highlighted the importance of breaking down stigma and discrimination associated with the disease.

Conclusion: The observation of World AIDS Day 2022 in Hojai, Assam, organized by the District Health Society, Assam State AIDS Control Society, and NAMCE, was a resounding success. The event successfully achieved its objectives of raising awareness about HIV/AIDS, providing education and testing services, and promoting a sense of solidarity in the fight against the disease. It was a reminder of the importance of continued efforts to combat HIV/AIDS and support those affected by it. The collaborative efforts of all involved parties showcased the community's commitment to addressing this global health challenge.
