

Nazir Ajmal Memorial College of Education, Hojai

Internal Seminar Presentation

On Educational Sociology

Roll No	Topic
7	Meaning and Nature of Sociology Understanding the concept, nature, and characteristics of sociology as the study of human society and social relationships.
9	Concept and Nature of Social Change Explanation of what social change means, its nature, and the essential characteristics of change in modern society.
11	Social Groups: Meaning, Types, and Importance Study of the meaning and characteristics of social groups; differences between primary and secondary groups and their educational significance.
13	Methods of Sociology Discussion of the main sociological methods used for understanding social phenomena.
14	Meaning and Nature of Educational Sociology Study of educational sociology as a branch of sociology with its meaning, characteristics, and development.
18	Relationship between Education and Sociology Analysis of the close relationship between education and sociology and how each influences the other.
21	Education as an Instrument of Social Change Discussion of the key role of education as a driving force in shaping progressive social transformation.
22	Meaning and Nature of Socialization Understanding socialization as a process through which individuals learn social values, roles, and patterns of behaviour.
23	Education as a Process of Socialization Study of how education contributes to social development and integration through various activities and interactions.
25	Agents of Socialization: Family and School Discussion on how family and school act as the main factors of socialization, imparting norms and values.
29	Functions of Culture Study of how culture shapes social behavior, unites people, and maintains order in society.

30	Scope and Significance of Educational Sociology Explanation of the range, roles, and importance of educational sociology in shaping education for social betterment.
31	Concept and Nature of Culture Understanding the meaning, nature, and components of culture as a guiding force of human life.
32	Functions of Culture Study of how culture shapes social behaviour, unites people, and maintains order in society.
34	Types of Culture Examination of material and non-material culture with examples and their combined roles in shaping thinking and values.
35	Factors of Social Change Study of major factors responsible for social change such as technology, communication, legislation, and innovation.
36	Processes of Socialization Explanation of the key processes of socialization such as imitation, suggestion, identification, and internalization.

Guidelines

- ❖ Use PowerPoint slides within 10-12 slides only.
- ❖ Presentation time: 7 minutes for presenting and 3 minutes for discussion.
- ❖ Focus strongly on your content clarity and conceptual understanding.
- ❖ Maintain confidence, voice clarity, and eye contact while presenting.
- ❖ Relate your topic with practical or real-life educational examples.

Kaji Minhajul Hoque

Nazir Ajmal Memorial College of Education