Report on Blanket Distribution at Gauranagar: A Noble Initiative by Nazir Ajmal Memorial College of Education, Hojai

Date: 22nd February, 2025

Time: 11 am onwards

Venue: Gauranagar, the adopted village of Nazir Ajmal Memorial College of Education, Hojai

Report: On February 22, 2025, from 11 am onwards, a blanket distribution program was held at Gauranagar, the adopted village of Nazir Ajmal Memorial College of Education, Hojai. The initiative, organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college, aimed to provide blankets to economically vulnerable residents of the village.

A total of 163 households, comprising families facing financial hardships, received blankets as part of this initiative. Additionally, special attention was given to six physically ill individuals, with blankets being personally delivered to their homes. Among these six individuals, four were women and two were men.

The program saw active participation from the college community, with the Principal, staff members, and the Students' Union all contributing to the success of the event. The collaboration with the local residents ensured the smooth distribution of the blankets.

The IQAC of Nazir Ajmal Memorial College of Education, Hojai, continues to demonstrate its commitment to social welfare through such activities, striving to make a positive impact in the community.
